UNIVERSALIST REGISTER,

FOR 1908.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION

"The Universalist General Convention," having jurisdiction over the ecclesiastical organizations of the Universalist Church in the United States and Canadian provinces, meets biennially. The next session—1909—is to be held in Detroit on the Wednesday preceding the fourth Sunday in October. Preacher of the Occasional Sermon, Rev. Frank Oliver Hall, S. T. D., New York. The Convention is composed of the Officers of the General Convention, of the Presidents, the Vice-Presidents and the Secretaries of the several State Conventions, and of clerical and lay delegates from the State Conventions, each State entitled to two clerical and four lay delegates and to an additional number of each class of delegates in proportion to the aggregate of its parishes and clergymen. At least four parishes must be organized and established in a State before a State Convention can be formed, but a less number of parishes may unite to choose two delegates, clerical or lay, to represent them in the General Convention; and if there be one parish so situated, it is entitled to two delegates. In all such States or Territories the General Convention has original jurisdiction.

All laws relating to fellowship, ordination and discipline originate in the General Convention, and is the final court of appeal in all cases of dispute or difficulty between State Conventions. It is an incorporated body, empowered to hold real and personal estate to the value of five hundred thousand dollars, "to be devoted exclusively to the diffusion of Christian knowledge, by means of missionaries, publications and other agencies." In the interim of sessions the interests of Conventions are watched over and managed by a Board of Trustees.

The Murray Centenary Fund, created in 1870 as a memorial of the one hundredth anniversary of Rev. John Murray's first sermon in America, is the leading fund of the Universalist Church. To this fund there have from time to time been added others of various sums, and under different names, so that the total today is in the neighborhood of $370,000. The sums have been named in former numbers of THE REGISTER. The report of the General Convention of the Universalist Church extends into detail concerning them. The appropriations for the Convention year (1907–1908) are whatever income from any source may be deemed best by the Board of Trustees.

STATISTICS.

As in the REGISTER in former years, so now, it has been deemed advisable to place first all needed statements in regard to State organizations, arranged as heretofore, alphabetically. The same order of arrangement is also made of the Parish statistics, which immediately follow.

The location of parishes and other preaching places, according to post-office address is shown in the first column; where a fraction appears after the name of a parish it indicates that preaching services are held part of the time; (oc.) denotes that there is only occasional preaching; (m.) monthly services; (dor.) that the society is inactive; (||) that the parish is not in formal fellowship. Where the name of a parish is preceded by a dagger (†) it indicates that no recent information has been received. The number of families included in the respective parishes is given under the proper heading. Under the head of "Church Edifices," the date of dedication is given when known. Un denotes that the parish is part owner in a union house of worship: the abbreviations b. (brick), st. (stone), w. (wood), indicate the material of the structure. In the column designated "Preachers," the names of pastors or regular supplies are given. If the name is in italics the preacher is a licentiate; parallels (||) show that he is not in the Universalist fellowship. An asterisk (*) prefixed to the name of a Parish Clerk, Superintendent of Sunday School or Secretary of a Young People's Organization, denotes that the officer is a woman and should be addressed as Miss; two asterisks () that she should be addressed as Mrs.

The statistics except those relating to the Young People's Religious Organizations are from official reports of State Convention Secretaries to the Secretary of the General Convention, supplemented by more recent reports from Preachers and Parishes. In the absence of information of recent date from these sources the figures of the last reported year are used.

Ordained Japanese Missionaries—Rev. Hidezo Yoshimura, Rev. Hisanari Hoshino, Rev. S. Akashi, Rev. Sempo Ito, Rev. Kyoshi Satoh, and Rev. Y. Mashino. The first two are not in active service. Resident pastors are employed in three places: Tokyo, Shidzuoka and Nagoya. Rev. Y. Mashino is forming the nucleus of a second church in Tokyo. Akita and Hoden have church organizations and are called "visiting stations." Through The Universalist — a monthly magazine—and other literature an excellent influence is sent forth to inquirers. The Blackmer Home is a fine benefaction. The pastors and associates of the missionaries have the interests of the work at heart and make their influence felt in the communities where they labor. Rev. Mr. Satoh and wife, Mrs. Tame Satoh, were students in America and are known to many Universalists. They are teachers in the Girls' School in Tokyo. The Universalist Leader of Dec 7, 1907, was a Japan issue and contains valuable information. Also the issue of Oct. 27, 1906. The energy of the missionaries and their associates is directed to the work of establishing self-sustaining Universalist churches in Japan and all enterprises engaged in are intended to contribute to that end.

The following appears to be the tabulated statistics for the year closi 1907: Clergymen 698; Parishes 916; Families 52,708; Churches 807; Chur Members 52,112; Sunday Schools 644; Members 44,369; Church Edifices 7 Value of Property $10,941,605.00; Young People's Religious Organizatio Members about 9,000, Seniors and Juniors. There has been an earnest desi to gain the exact status of each Parish Organization and Convention whi accounts somewhat for the apparent shrinkage in statistics. We anticipate further shrinkage in forthcoming U. S. Census, owing to decision regardi "dormant" parishes which possess "assets", but have ceased having religio services.

His pastorates have been at Seneca and Vermillion Kansas, Blue Island, Ill., and in 1886 at Barre, Vt., also at Bellows Falls, Vt., Biddeford, Me., Madison, Me., and lastly at Mattapoisett and Marion, Mass. He recently ceased the pastorate and removed to Norwell for semi-retirement from the ministry. He was an able and successful minister, even a "born missionary." He was of commanding presence, of manly voice and an earnest minister of the Gospel. He won many to the fuller knowledge of the Christian life. He married in young manhood Miss Elvina L. Keith, who with a daughter survive him. The funeral was at Marion, Mass., where the Rev. Charles Conklin, D. D., officiated.

Oscar Fitzalan Safford died at his home in Peabody, Mass., September 14, 1907, aged 70 years. He was born in Oldtown, Me., December 25, 1837, but his youth was spent in Winslow, Waterville and Augusta, Me. He was a over of books, and in early manhood worked in the printing office of The Gospel Banner. It presented opportunities to him. He became acquainted with a teacher in the Augusta High School, who became his wife and assisted him in his advanced studies. In 1859, he entered Canton Theological School, completing his course in 1862; he at once entered upon a pastorate at Peabody, where he served during the trying times of the Civil War. In 1865, he entered upon a pastorate at Charlestown, where he remained four years; thence to Chicago, where he was three years, the time of the great fire; thence to Springfield Mass., for two years; thence to Cambridge, where he remained fourteen years, his longest pastorate; in 1888, he went to Troy, N. Y.; and in 1890 to Deering, Me. In 1894, after an absence of thirty years, he was recalled to Peabody, where for six years he rendered most faithful service. In 1900 he retired from the pastorate to devote his entire time to the editorship of the Sunday School Helper. From 1892 he was editor of this most helpful publication. His facile pen, his commanding and generous scholarship made his writings a source of information and inspiration to the Sunday school teachers of our Church. His expositions commanded the attention of Bible students of other Christian denominations. In 1885, Buchtel College honored itself by conferring the Doctorate degree upon him. Dr. Safford was a strong man, clear and concise in his expressions, ever holding the central teaching or position before his people. His pastorates were ever of the superior order. He was pastor among the people, and a man of power in the pulpit. The causes of education, temperance, betterment of the community, agriculture and American history enlisted his ardor and practical scholarship. Many words could be written of his labors out from these brief lines it will be noted that he filled most loyally and devotedly his place in the ministry of the Universalist Church.

QUILLEN HAMILTON SHINN died at his home, Medford Hillside, just off the campus of Tufts College, Sept. 6, 1907. He was born in West Virginia Jan. 1, 1845. From his 16th to 20th year he was a soldier in Civil War, private in 3d Virginia Infantry and 12th Virginia Infantry; was wounded and a prisoner of war at Belle Isle. He ever enjoyed his comradeship with the G. A. R. The war over he immediately took up the task of getting an education, and in September, 1867, he enrolled at Canton Theological School, graduating with credit 1870, and immediate y entered upon a pastorate at Gaysville, Vt., being ordained there October, 1870. He afterwards had pastorates at West Lynn, Foxboro and Mansfield, Mass., Plymouth, N. H. and Deering and Westbrook, Me. Amid these pastoral years he sought out places in which to do mission work. In 1881 he inaugurated the National Summer Meetings at Weirs, N. H. The same were held at Saratoga, N. Y., and latterly at Ferry Beach, Me. From these meetings came a new zeal for mission effort in the Universalist Church; and he himself became the promoter of Universalism in the newer cities of the nation. He was at Omaha two years, and at same time having interest in the movements at Kansas City and Topeka, and opened the way in many other places. He was known as the Weirs Missionary. In 1893 he became a National Organizer of the Y. P. C. U. and established the Post Office Mission. In 1895 he was appointed General Missionary. His effo ts thereafter were more in the Southland, where he was known intimately by the laymen, and his visits among the brethren were ovations. St. Lawrence University conferred the degree of D.D. upon him in 1895.

Dr. Shinn married May 10, 1876 Miss Maria S. Burnell of Portland, Me., who with three grown sons, survive him. His weekly correspondence, first to the Gospel Banner and thereafter to the Christian Leader, was notable. He was an ardent temperance man, having taken the "triple pledge" while a soldier in the Civil War. His funeral was held at Goddard Chapel, Tufts College; and also a second service at the church, Deering, Me., and his burial place is in Evergreen Cemetery near at hand. It is doubtful if ever a minister in the Universalist Church has had so m ny memorial services, or words of appreciation recorded by churches, Associations and Conventions throughout our Church—as has already b en manifest for Dr. Shinn. The greatest of all was at the General Convention, Philadelphia, Oct. 25. He was a man of prayer and faith, and a earnest believer in hard work. His memory is full of blessing to the Universalist Church.

JACOB TENOR died at his home, Olive Branch, Ohio, July, 1907. He was for many years a lay preacher. "He was a good man, ever zealous for our Church, ever ready to do his part and was one of the pioneer lay preachers in southwestern Ohio."

WALTER SCOTT VAIL died at his home in Wichita, Kan. Oct. 14, 1907, aged fifty-five years. He was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, and in youth removed to Illinois. He was a graduate of the Divinity School, Tufts College, 1877. Before his graduation he rendered slight but efficient service at Spencer, Mass., in inaugurating a movement which became a well established church. He was ordained July 12, 1877, at South Berwick, Me., where he ministered four or more years in 1882 he settled at Gardiner, Me., remaining three years; in 1886 he was at Dover, N. H; and in 1887 removed to St Paul, Minn., where there was a Universalist movement which he served for several years. In 1894 he withdrew and became a minister in the Unitarian Church at Wichita, Kan. Atlanta, Ga., Sioux City, Iowa, and again at Wichita, Kan., in 1901, where he spent the remainder of his days. A wife and two sons survive. He is kindly remembered as a studious and aggressive man.

DAVID WILLIAMS of Little Hickory, Ill., died Aug. 17, 1907 aged seventy-eight years. He was born Dec. 1, 1829, in Montgomery county, Ill., just south of Fillmore. He was the son of Benjamin and Hannah Williams. Shortly after his birth his parents moved to Hurricane township, Fayette county, where he grew to manhood amid the scenes of rural life. He married first about 1856 Kezia Casey. Three children were born to them, one of whom, Benjamin, was circuit clerk of Fayette county from 1888 to 1896. The others died in childhood. Bro. Williams joined the Ebenezer Baptist Church at Little Hickory, and was baptized by Rev. Temple Hicks in June, 1857. He was ordained in January, 1858, by Rev. Temple Hicks and Bros. Greenberry Mathews and William Price. His wife taught him how to read and write, but by constant study he acquired large fund of general information and became a leader in he community in which he lived. While yet a lusty young armer he developed a fondness for public speaking and eing deeply religious became a power as a de ater and inister of the gospel. He held several debates and was ccustomed to carry off first honors. His mind broadened vith his study until at length he came to believe in the final ngathering of all souls to God, and in 1877 he was received n o the fellowship of the Universalist Church. There is a it of peculiar hist ry connected with the church at Little Hickory, where he preached for nearly 50 years. When Rev. Temple Hicks moved from Kentucky to Illinois his arishioners moved with him bringing their church records. Th y moved the church invisible. The visible church being eft behind, their first meetings were held under a "lit le ick ry" tree, in the crotch of which the Bible was accus-omed to rest. It was this organization over which Brother Villiams later became pastor and when he espoused the arger faith his whole congregation came out with him. His irst wife passed away 24 years ago, and later he married Mrs. Mary Casey, who, with three sisters, other kindred and nany friends, are left to mourn his going away. The funeral ervice was held at Little Hickory and was conducted by Rev. M. M. Hicks, the pastor.

American Standard Bible

Edited by The American Revision Committee

All styles at book stores, 35c. to $18

is a work of candor and devotion never surpassed. The great scholars who toiled for years on this translation accepted no financial reward for their services.

Scholars of all denominations: they put aside their own theories, with the sacred purpose only to translate the exact words of the Holy Men of Old into our present-day English.

CHARLES G. TRUMBULL, Editor of The Sunday School Times, says: "The more thoughtful Bible student of today does not feel really safe in studying a Bible passage unless he works with the American Standard Bible in hand. It has been the accepted standard for the Sunday School Times since its first appearance in 1901."

Interesting Booklet Sent Free. Send a postal card for our free booklet which tells the reverent story of this noble work. It will give you a true idea of what the American Standard Bible means to the religious world.

THE OPTIMIST'S GOOD MORNING

By FLORENCE HOBART PERIN

Size 6½ x 4½ inches, 385 pages. Price, in decorated cloth, $1.00 net; bound in white and gold, $1.25 net; in limp morocco binding, gilt top, $1.50 net.

THE happy title of this book does not altogether suggest its purpose and utility, though the book itself is true to its title. It is a book in which to begin each day of the year. Under each day is a noble sentiment, followed by a brief morning prayer. The selections are made, not uniformly, but very largely with reference to their optimistic quality. They breathe the spirit of hopefulness and courage. Free from cant phrases, the prayers are real prayers by the leading ministers of all denominations. The reading of selection and prayer will occupy not more than three or four minutes, and it is believed that many who would like to begin the day with an upward look, but think that they have not the time, will find in this home service book a sure aid to help them face the day with braver heart.

The Goodness of God

IN VIEW OF THE FACTS OF NATURE AND THE SUPERNATURAL

By GEORGE T. KNIGHT, D. D., Professor of Theology in Tufts College Divinity School.

A CRISP and readable statement of the argument in the case of optimism against pessimism, with a history of theodicy, giving a complete résumé in compact compass of all the important theories of the problem of evil. The book is one of the greatest contributions to a rational and helpful theology of recent times, and might well find place as a text-book, not only in the divinity schools, but in that practical school of a growing theology from which there is no graduation. 126 pages, cloth, gilt top. Price 50 cents, post paid.

STATISTICS.

As in the REGISTER in former years, so now, it has been deemed advisable to place first all needed statements in regard to State organizations, arranged as heretofore, alphabetically. The same order of arrangement is also made of the Parish statistics, which immediately follow.

The location of parishes and other preaching places, according to post-office address is shown in the first column; where a fraction appears after the name of a parish it indicates that preaching services are held part of the time; (oc.) denotes that there is only occasional preaching; (m.) monthly services; (dor.) that the society is inactive; (‖) that the parish is not in formal fellowship. Where the name of a parish is preceded by a dagger (†) it indicates that no recent information has been received. The number of families included in the respective parishes is given under the proper heading. Under the head of "Church Edifices," the date of dedication is given when known. Un denotes that the parish is part owner in a union house of worship; the abbreviations b. (brick), st. (stone), w. (wood), indicate the material of the structure. In the column designated "Preachers," the names of pastors or regular supplies are given. If the name is in italics the preacher is a licentiate; parallels (‖) show that he is not in the Universalist fellowship. An asterisk (*) prefixed to the name of a Parish Clerk, Superintendent of Sunday School or Secretary of a Young People's Organization, denotes that the officer is a woman and should be addressed as Miss; two asterisks () that she should be addressed as Mrs.

The statistics except those relating to the Young People's Religious Organizations are from official reports of State Convention Secretaries to the Secretary of the General Convention, supplemented by more recent reports from Preachers and Parishes. In the absence of information of recent date from these sources the figures of the last reported year are used.

CUBA.

Our Cuban mission is in the care of Rev. Jacob Straub, D.D., residing at Columbia on the north shore of the island. While Columbia sympathizes with the general depression of the other colonies, chiefly from political causes, and is much diminished in numbers, the mission still has its important and hopeful features. Though the Church at Columbia is represented by several denominations cooperating it is under a recognized Universalist pastor who is known as such in all the colonies and beyond where his visits and pastorate influence extend. The result will be a Universalist constituency ready when prosperity returns to the Island.

JAPAN.

The Japanese Mission was begun by the General Convention in 1890. During the year the passing away of Rev. Dr. Cate made a vacancy over which the entire church sorrows. The present missionary staff are Rev. and Mrs. Nelson L. Lobdell, Miss Catherine M. Osborn, and Miss Agnes M. Hathaway. The following are the ordained Japanese clergymen: Rev. Hidezo Yoshimura, Rev. Hisanari Hoshino, Rev. S. Akashi, Rev. Sempo Ito, Rev. Kyoshi Satoh, and Rev. Y. Mashino. The first two are not in active service. The Universalist Convention of Japan meets annually in April. The officers are: President and Acting Superintendent of the Mission—Rev. N. L. Lobdell; Sec.—Rev. S. Akashi; Treas.—Miss M. A. Hathaway. Resident pastors are employed in three places: Tokyo, Shidzuoka and Nagoya. Rev. Y. Mashino is forming the nucleus of a second church in Tokyo. Akita has a church organization and is called a "visiting station." As the Mission has been unable to supply a resident pastor for Hoden since it came to us from another denomination, it asked permission to withdraw from the denomination, and the request was granted. Through The Universalist, a monthly periodical, and other literature an excellent influence is sent forth to inquirers. The Blackmer Home is a fine benefaction. The pastors and associates of the missionaries have the interests of the work at heart and make their influence felt in the communities where they labor. Rev. Mr. Satoh and wife, Mrs. Tame Satoh, were students in America and are known to many Universalists. They are teachers in the Girls' School in Tokyo. The Universalist Leader of Dec 7, 1907, and Oct. 27, 1906 were Japan issues and contains valuable information, and the energy of the missionaries and their associates is directed to the work of establishing selfsustaining Universalist churches in Japan and all enterprises engaged in are intended to contribute to that end.

Rev. G. I. Keirn, D.D., Muncie, Ind., who formerly served in Japan, has been appointed by the Universalist General Convention to the Superintendency of the Japanese Mission and enters upon the service early in the season of 1909.

He had been a resident of Somerville for thirty-eight years. Becoming a believer in Universalism, and holding from an earnest study of the Bible, that the doctrine of endless punishment was not compatible with true Christian doctrines, he at once took up the office of the ministry in the Third Universalist Church of his residential city, and rendered most efficient service in laying deep the foundation of a strong people. He retired from active ministry on account of impaired health. His change in denominational relations never came in the way of the people's confidence in him as friend, neighbor and conforter. His partorates were at Springfield and Marietta, Ohio, St. Louis, Mo., Lawrence Mass., from 1860 to 1872, one of the most successful ministries a pastor ever rendered; Galesburg, Ill. Akron, Ohio, and Canton, N. Y., and a second pastorate a Akron. His last settlement of seven years was at Ea Providence, R. I. In 1891, because of his wife's ill health he withdrew from pastorate and resided with a married daughter in Canton, N. Y. He was a frequent contributo to the Universalist Quarterly. He was the author of a dozen books, which had a wide sale. In 1853 he married Sarah Jane Kendall, who journied with him fifty-one years a scholarly comrade and sympathising wife. Dean Henry P. Forbes, D.D., of Canton Theological School pays beautiful tribute to him in The Universalist Leader in which he says: "His long career as clergyman was one of uninterrupted success. His intelligence, scholarly habit, careful preparation, rare spirituality, made his sermons a true food for the souls of men; while his sympathy, practical wisdom, wonderful cheer, genuine interest in men made him an ideal pastor." Rev. I. M. Atwood in The Leader says of him: "Dr. Weaver was one of our Universalist Saints. His Universalism made him a philanthropist and a reformer, and kept him hopeful and sweet. He was a living epistle of the great faith and hope and love." Through his influence his brother, Andrew I. Weaver, and his brothers-in-law, Paul R. Kendall, James Henry Chapin and J. Hazard Hartzell, entered the Universalist ministry. With Professor Kendall he was helpful in the establishment of Lombard College, which in 1876 confered degree of Doctrine of Divinity upon him. Though denied academic culture in a college, yet he became widely versed in science history and literature and wielded his gifted pen almost to the limit of his life. Funeral in Canton, N. DO YOU KNOW that the Bible in common use up to 1901 was revised in 1611, three hundred years ago; that it contains many words not now used and many others which have entirely changed their meaning?

DO YOU KNOW that the American Revision Committee spent thirty years preparing the published in 1901; that it is translated from the earliest and best manuscripts, and that the Revisers not only had the benefit of the latest discoveries, but had for comparison and reference the recent revisions made by England, Germany, France, Holland, Norway, Sweden and Denmark.

Therefore the verdict of Christian scholarship is unanimous that it is the best version of the Scriptures ever produced.

DR. GORDON'S LETTER

PARSONAGE OLD SOUTH CHURCH, BOSTON.

Dear Mr. Crooker: I have been reading your book with warm interest. It seems to me an admirable and a timely volume. You see clearly the deadness of the institution without the spirit, the impotence of the spirit without the institution. Your book is a searching criticism of a spiritless church and a churchless religion. Every wise, earnest minister will hail the support which your book gives to his cause. The insensibility of even good men to the eventual inseparability of the institution of religion and religion itself is deplorable, and your book attacks this insensibility with remarkable insight and force.

Very truly yours, GEORGE A. GORDON.

A Treatise

ON

BY

Hosea Ballou

This work, which has been called the most important and influential book ever produced by an American Universalist, was originally issued in 1805. The present edition contains the revised text, with an analysis of the contents in paragraph titles; a list of the various editions with dates and descriptions; and an introduction dealing with the work from the modern point of view.

As this important work has been long out of print, it is believed that, for its historic interest as well as for its intrinsic worth, the new edition will be heartily welcomed by the religious world.
